1949

Dear Carter,

I really ought to mess this up good after that crack you made. I'm really glad (I guess) you came here this year. We would never have won all our football games. Well, I hope we see a lot of you this summer. Be good if it's not too much trouble.

"So"

Dear Carter,

Please don't judge me by the way I was at that softball game. I was just mad. I'm glad you came to S.C.H.S. before I left. Come now, be a good boy and admit it's as nice as Kirkwood (well, almost). No kidding, Carter, I think you're really a swell guy. Always remember me as a friend.

Joan G.

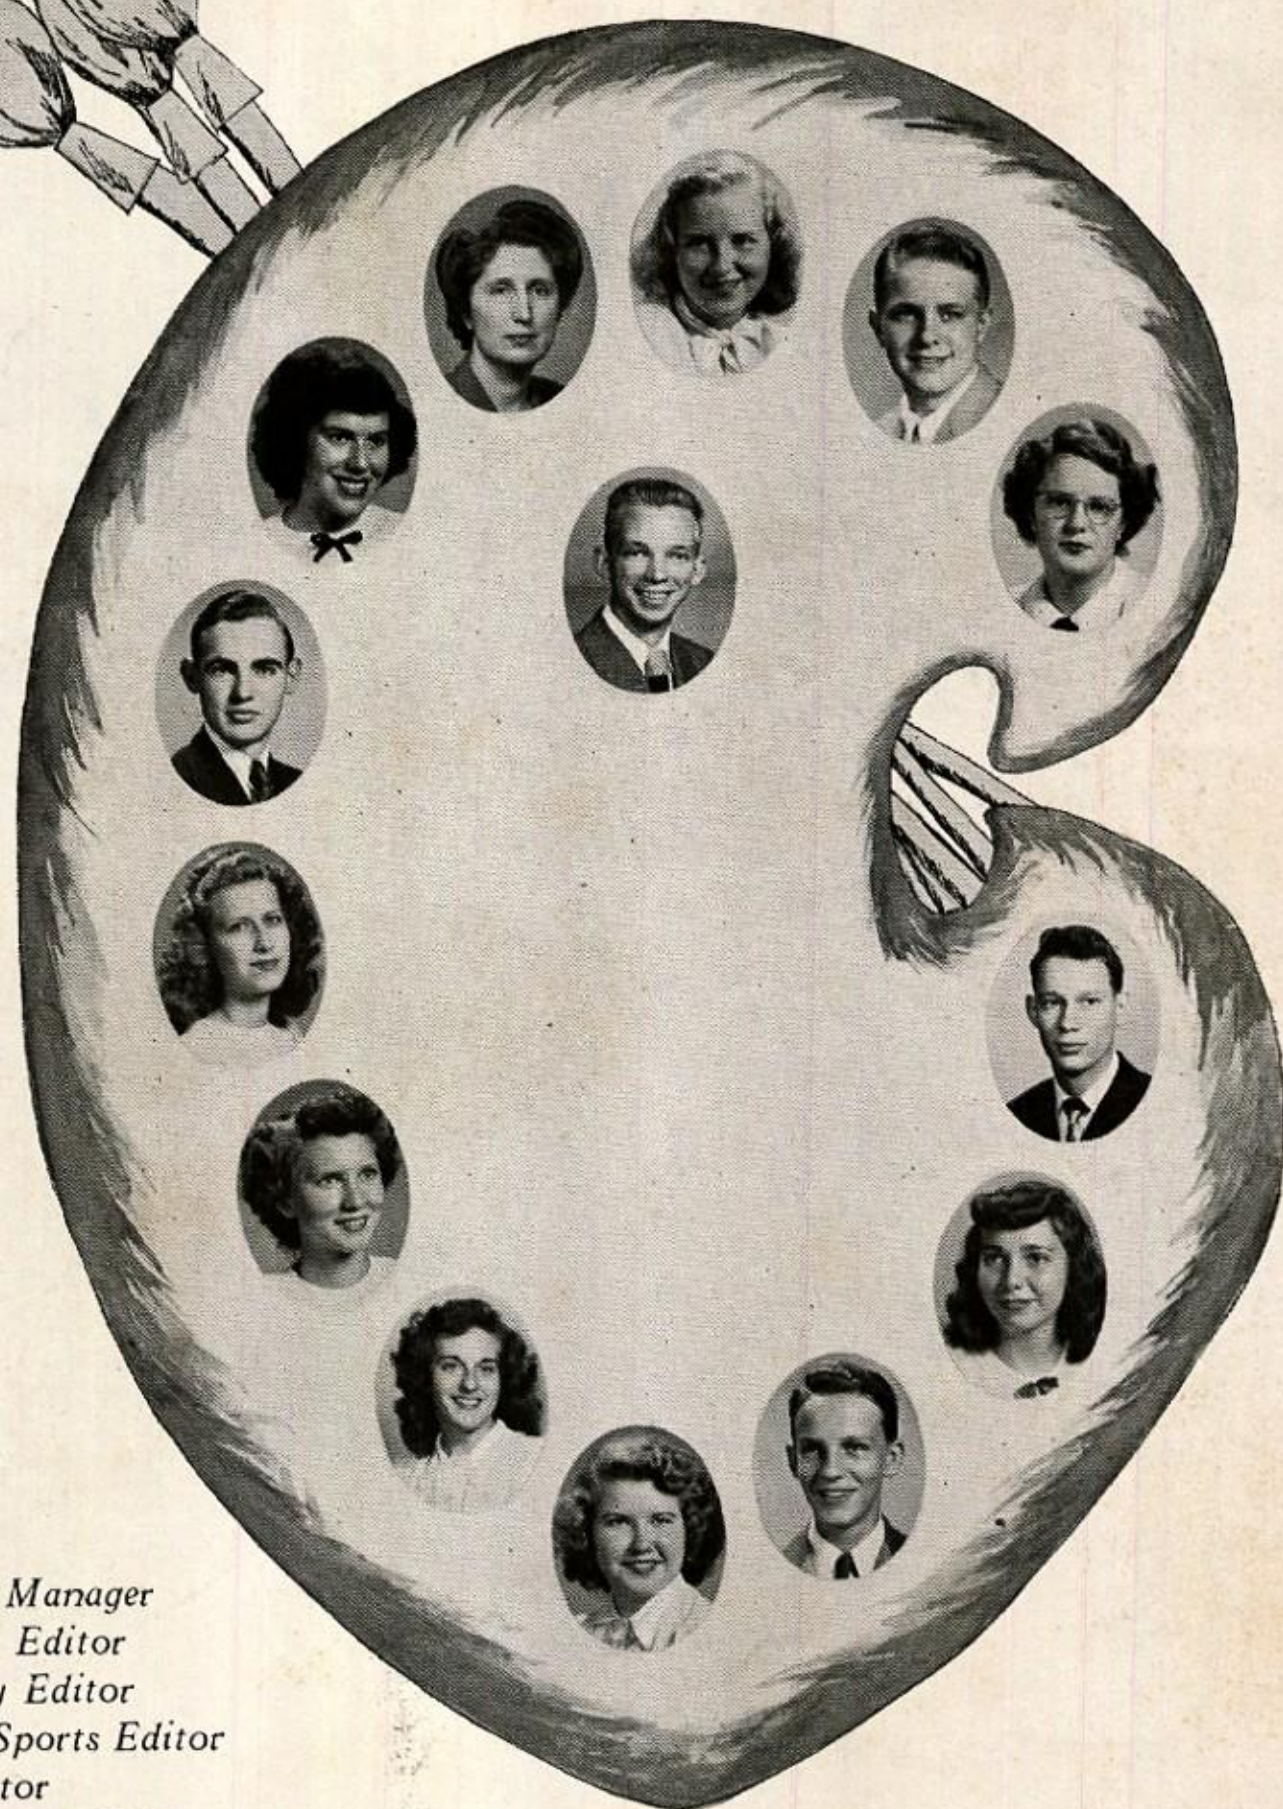

Dear Carter,

I haven't known you long, but it was swell knowing you. Best wishes to you. Hope you enjoy St. Charles, as I did. Good luck to you. We wouldn't have won some of our games if it weren't for you.

"So"

A. D. 1949

We, the Charlemo Staff of 1949, in painting the picture of our high school, have endeavored to present in a true light the happenings of school life throughout this year of '48-'49.

We sincerely hope that this Charlemo will help you cherish the memories of this year at school.

Forward

As we Seniors go forward to a new life outside of St. Charles High, we leave behind us many traditions and standards. It is our hope that the Juniors will maintain these high traditions which we pass on to them.

Our Prize Portrait

It is with the greatest of pleasure that we, the Senior Class, dedicate our "Charlemo" to the "finished product" . . . the graduates of 1949.

When we entered S. C. H. S. as freshmen, we were uncertain in regard to our future; but now, as we students pass out of the doors for the last time, we are ready to face the world as good citizens—able bodies willing to meet whatever challenges may be placed before us.

Looking through the frame, we see the theme of our 1949 yearbook, an Art Gallery.

Just as each color must be blended harmoniously by the artist, so each phase of school life must function co-operatively and harmoniously.

Let us now begin our tour through the various divisions of our gallery which represent the academic and extra-curricular activities of life at St. Charles High School.

SOCIAL LIFE

Exterior of Our Gallery

Our Art Gallery

An Art Gallery consists of priceless works and masterpieces of great artists, and in like manner our school is the gallery of our activities, organizations, and classes.

Head of the Gallery

ART DIRECTORS

Our Board of Directors is comprised of six able and alert-minded citizens. They have promoted, through their countless efforts in our behalf, the educational and recreational activities of the school.

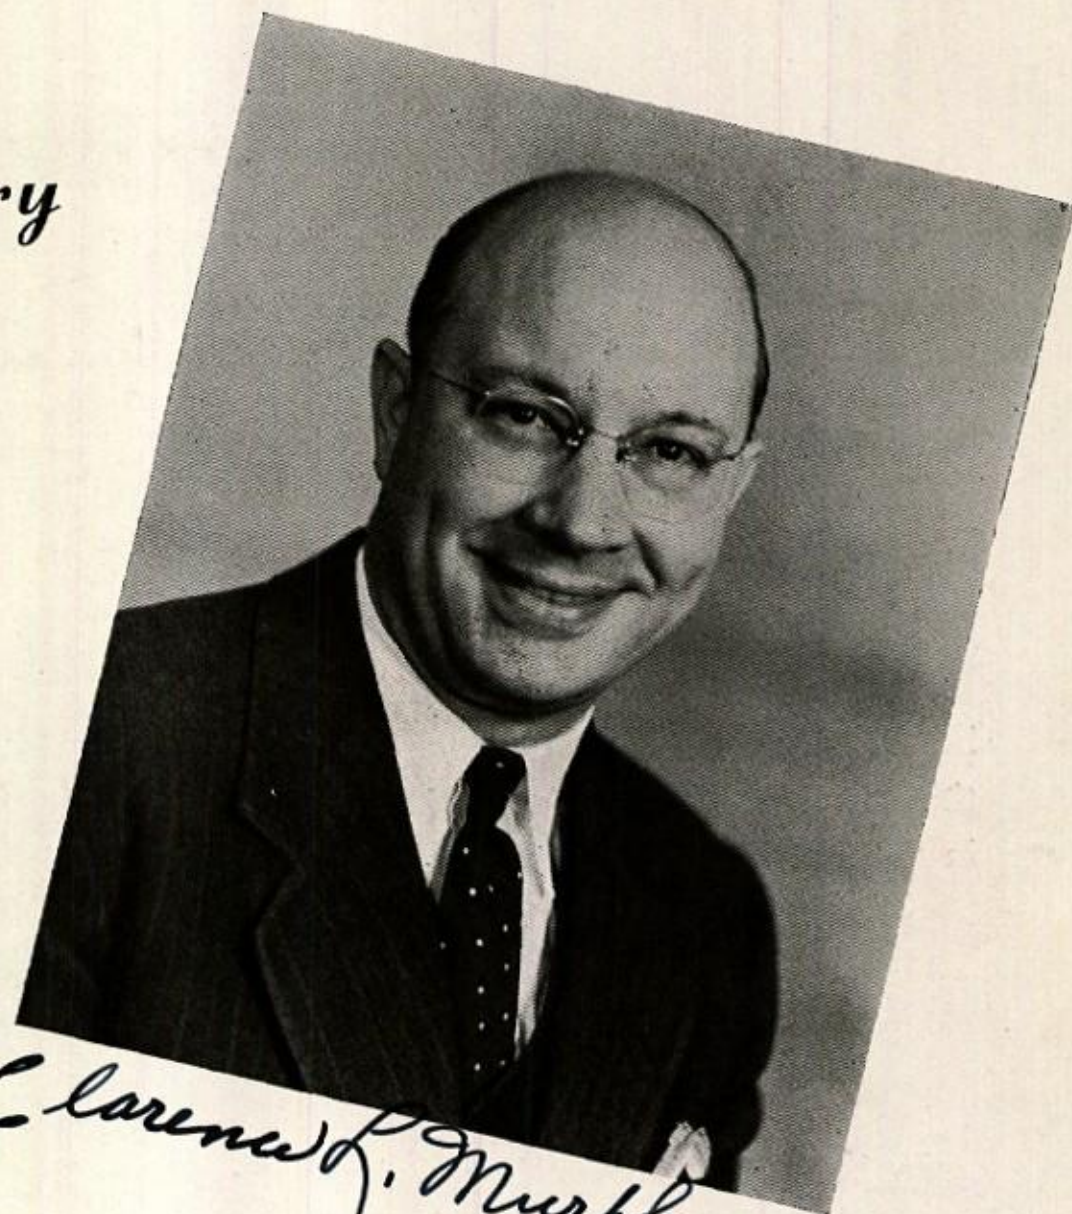

These men, two of whom are elected every two years, serve three-year terms. They are chosen by the vote of the people, and in turn they are responsible to these people for the way in which the school is directed.

SUPERINTENDENT

As our Superintendent of Schools, Mr. Stephen Blackhurst has maintained and guided our school successfully. It is this very gracious man who welcomes the Freshmen as a class and who bids farewell to the Seniors.

Head of the Gallery

Clarence L. Murphy

PRINCIPAL

Mr. Clarence L. Murphy, who came to S. C. H. S. this year, has upheld the standards of the past and has made changes which have proved to be aids in the betterment of our school.

We Seniors thank him for making this, our final year, a most pleasant one and wish him much success in the future as Principal of St. Charles High.

CHARLEMO

The Charlemo staff is a group of thirteen seniors who are chosen to plan and edit the yearbook of St. Charles High, the "Charlemo."

The able sponsor of this group is Mrs. Werges, who has had charge of sponsoring the Senior yearbook for several years.

Staff members have worked long and industriously throughout the year to make this, the 1949 Yearbook, the best edition in the Charlemo's history.

BIOLOGY

In biology a student learns about the science of living things. Throughout the year, Miss Gruer has the class work out various class projects such as: the dissection of grasshoppers and frogs; leaf collections; microscopic study and other experiments of interest to the student.

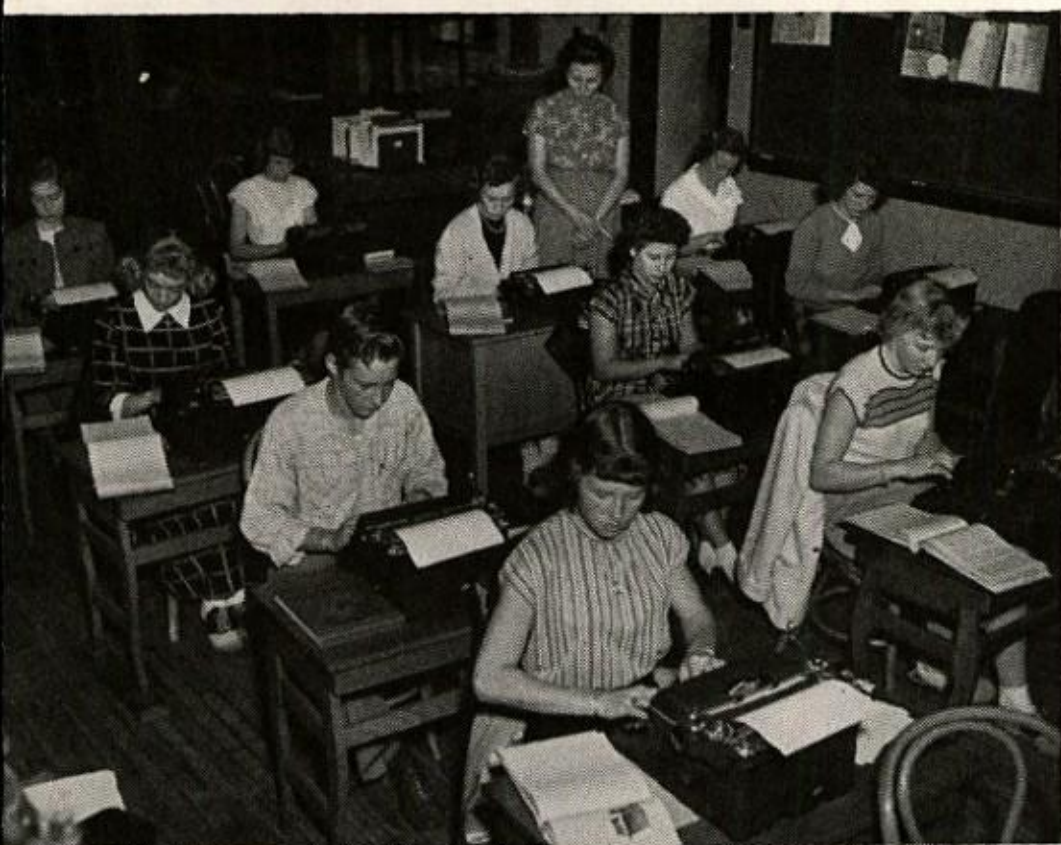

HOME ECONOMICS

Home Economics is composed of two definite divisions: sewing and cooking. The sewing class, under the direction of Miss Livingston, learns the many rules and means of making serviceable and modish clothing, not only for one's self but also for the entire family.

In the cooking department, ably directed by Miss Scott, a student learns how to prepare well-balanced and appetizing meals for the family, how to care for the sick, and how to manage a home successfully.

TYPING

Both first and second year typing, under the watchful guidance of Miss Wightman and Mrs. Smith, learn the different types of letter writing, correct spacing, and everything else that will be needed by a typist in an office.

Typing is beneficial to a person even though he does not intend to be a typist, for it teaches co-ordination of the mind, eye, and hand. Also, emphasis is placed on accuracy, not speed.

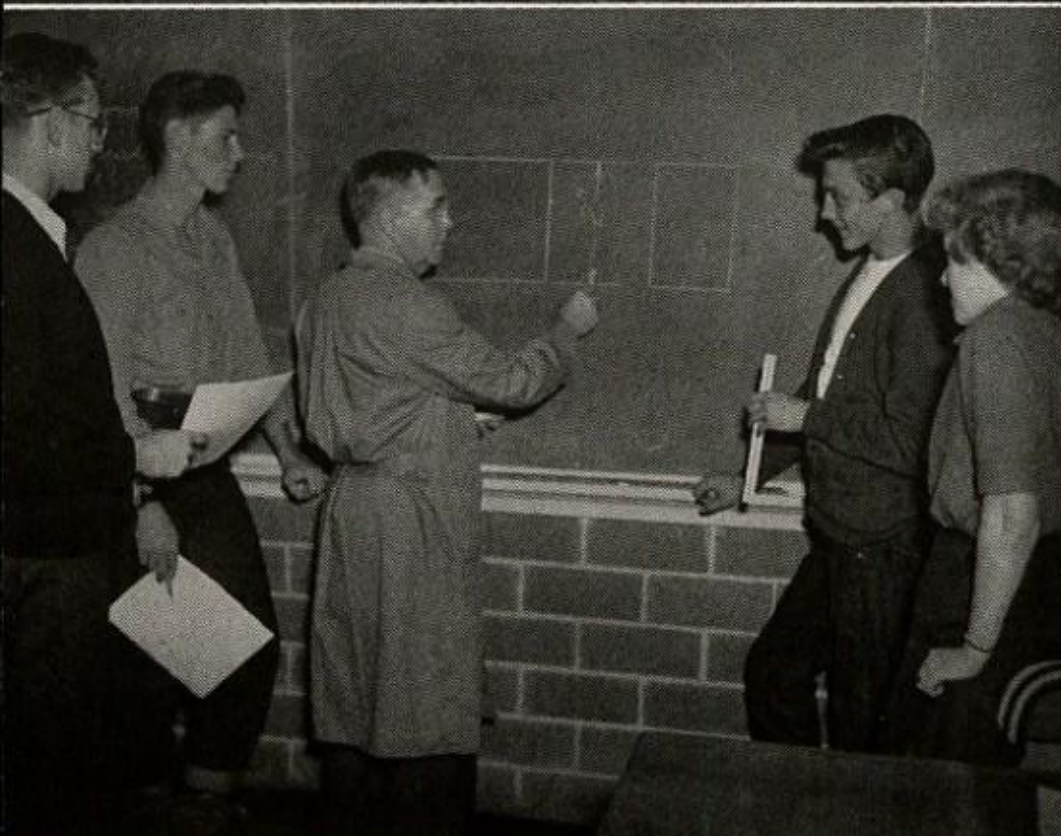

GIRLS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The principal objective of physical education is to teach a student the meaning of cooperation and good sportsmanship, and also to make one alert and able in body and in mind.

This year, Miss Regan, Physical Education instructor, began teaching the rudiments of field hockey. This proved an interesting sport and resulted in a tournament between the different "gym" classes.

Also this year, the students learned how to do the square dance and other old-time dances.

MECHANICAL DRAWING

Mechanical Drawing, a subject taken by both boys and girls, is one of the most interesting classes in the high school, for it teaches the student how to plan and draw blueprints which are used as a guide in constructing various projects.

Masterpieces

Classes

Great paintings are not to be considered the only masterpieces, for there is a masterpiece in every profession.

As a poem may be the masterpiece of a poet because it represents his greatest achievement, so in like manner the classes are masterpieces of the school, for they are the products of our artists, the teachers.

Best of luck to a "hugoman".

Sketches

Athletics

The preliminary sketches of an artist before starting on his painting are perhaps the most important part of the work until it is finished, for this work is the basic plan for that which follows. Likewise, the plans of the coach, on the field and the floor, of the faculty, in classes and elsewhere, are the basis of our school life.

Dear Carter,

I haven't known

Football

Coach Hiatt's Pirates traveled to Hannibal, Missouri, for their initial game of the 1948 football season. St. Charles held their margin well during the first half of the contest, the score: 6-0. But in the second half the scales tipped in Hannibal's direction. The final score was 32-0.

Resting up after the bruising Hannibal contest, the St. Charles Pirates met the Ferguson team in the season's first home contest. Our only touchdown was scored by John Hartwig in the third quarter. Although Ferguson dominated most of the play during the game, the Pirates played a hard game. The score added up 18-6.

The unpredictable Ritenour Huskies trounced the Pirates in their third encounter when they hung up a 25-0 defeat on our shoulders. Again the Pirates played good ball during the first half, holding the score to 6-0.

After accepting three defeats, the Pirates coasted to an easy 19-6 win over Brentwood. Carter Botkin, John Hartwig, and David Kinion shared scoring honors, with John Hartwig chalking up the extra point.

October 23 found us at Kirkwood battling the strong Kirkwood eleven. Although the entire team played heads-up football, they were thoroughly trounced, 49-0.

On October 29 the Blue and White walloped Madison, Illinois, in our biggest win of the season. Scorers in the first quarter were Cecil Cook, who ran 40 yards after receiving a pass, and Carter Botkin, who, after taking a lateral from Tom Cox, raced 50 yards to the opposite goal. John Hartwig ran our extra point. In the second quarter the Pirates came back and drove across the Madison goal three times. Scorers in this quarter were John Hartwig, Harold McCoy, and Roger Christian. Our scoring terminated in the last half when John Hartwig plunged 15 yards for a touchdown.

The Pirates were handed a 27-6 drubbing at the hands of Clayton's Greyhounds at our homecoming game, November 5. The Pirates proved their strength by holding back the Clayton line in the first quarters of the game and by tying the score in the second quarter.

The tough University City Indians coasted to an easy 45-0 win over the Pirates when they played a postponed game on November 8.

The Wellston Trojans crashed through the St. Charles line four times, giving the Pirates a 26-6 drubbing November 12. Our only touchdown was scored in the last quarter. The Buccaneers piled up six touchdowns, making a total of 73 yards.

Detail

Organizations

Chess is considered an art by many people because it requires considerable knowledge of the various moves and chessmen to be able to play a skillful game.

Just as it involves much detail, so our school life involves the details of organization and extra-curricular activities. It is through these various clubs and activities that the teachers and students become better acquainted by working together to achieve some common end.

Band

During the past year the band, under the direction of Mr. Vance, has been one of the most active organizations, serving the student body with excellent marching exhibitions. They furnished very entertaining music at the football games.

May Queen

The Queen of Love and Beauty,

MISS "JACKIE" WILKE,

elected by her classmates as the most popular girl of the Senior Class, was crowned the 1949 May
 Queen at the annual May Fete.
 After reaching her floral-bedecked throne, Miss Wilke received her crown from the retiring queen,
 Mary Jane Leverenz.

The Brushes

(Maintenance Men)

*Back Row: Mr. Jones, Mr. Duello, Mr. Pohlmann.

The maintenance men may be compared to an artist's brushes; for as the brushes provide the artist with the means of painting and blending a picture, so the maintenance men provide the school with the means of functioning properly.

It is often said that "credit should be given where credit is due," and so to the maintenance men of S. C. H. S., who deserve a great deal of credit, we say "Thank you!"

"Thank you" for having the school warm when we arrive on those cold winter mornings; for keeping the school in working order; for working tirelessly to do all the little things that improve a student's life at S. C. H. S.

In addition to a Varsity team, we had a Junior Varsity squad. This group played a total of three games. Even though they were defeated in all of their encounters, it was good experience for the younger boys in preparation for the Varsity squad.

At the end of the season, Arlie Jungerman was elected captain of the football team by the entire squad.

Although only two of the nine games played were successful for the Blue and White, our team proved itself by fair play and teamwork. The Pirates were a stronger, more experienced team at the season's close.
